Basic - it scaled well for the phone - graphics were pleasing a buttons and menu were well placed. Colors were appropriate for a doctor website images were good and related to the theme	A couple things - the medi call logo is too small and missing an L. The phrase "yeah it's that simple" is unprofessional and looks awkward, please don't out MVHS anywhere in the page - you will be disqualified- just the team number. You have a ton of writing - like a	Take off the mvhs part - it will disqualify you	Your lead graii ok how for the company is too small and is missing an "L"	Works smoothly on a phone and scaled well for phone
Colors fit the message and do not distract. Images are clean and clear. The sites design choices overall are corporate and clean while being calming and accessible.	No	N/A	Visually yes. I would recommend a call to action or more precise direction on the home landing screen. You want people engaged and immediately beginning the process of signing up or joining.	N/A
Like the yellow and blue colors, feels calming for a medical site, yet good additions of yellow for call to action	Looks good! Check some of the verbiage on the doctor pages that overlaps the pictures	N/A	N/A however I do find the website visually appealing, nice graphics and simple to read format	N/A however yes I find it very functional and easy to navigate

N/A	Yes. Easy direction and clear menus	Great work overall. My only feedback would be to get people engaged faster on your home page and to pay close attention to the legibility of your type on the doctors pages.
Website is functional! Suggest adding "contact information" in your forms so you can reach people back by email or phone.	Yes functions very well! Suggest adding a "Schedule Now" button at top of home page in Yellow so if people want to quickly schedule they don't have to scroll to end of first page.	I would emphasize that using your site to find qualified medical professional professionals quickly and easily is Free as people like hearing that they can get access to information and research from a reliable site. I would take out the word "yeah" and just say "It's that
